

The Hague 15 April 2009

To the: Heads of the Europol National Units

Subject: Recruitment for EUROPOL of:

2330-474 Second Officer Data Protection and Confidentiality Unit

I have the honour to forward the attached advertisement for a vacancy at Europol.

I would be grateful if you could kindly arrange for publication of the notice so that suitably qualified personnel may be encouraged to apply.

Please note the deadline for receipt of applications at Europol is 24 June 2009.

Europol considers that a balanced representation of women and men is important just as an adequate representation of nationals of all Member States and of the official languages of the European Union. Therefore Europol encourages particularly women from all Member States to apply for these vacancies.

It should be noted that for the tests short-listed candidates' travel expenses and hotel accommodation expenses will be reimbursed to the applicants in accordance with the rules laid down in the Staff Regulations.

Yours faithfully,

Christian Jechoutek
Assistant Director
