

“Get to Know the Speaker”

International Conference “The Belgian Police ... A Centre of Excellence”

Brussels, 6-7 June 2007

Paul Ponsaers

Ms / Mr : Mr.
Last name : Ponsaers
First name : Paul
Title : Prof. dr.
Rank :
Name organisation : Universiteit Gent, Department of Penal Law and Criminology,
Research Unit Social Analysis of Security Research
Place : Universiteitstraat 4, 9000 Gent
Country : Belgium

Short description of his career and the interest in police work:

Short description of his activities and/or publications:

Educational background:

Paul Ponsaers has got a Licentiate degree in Sociology and a Doctoral degree in Criminology. He started his scientific career as a scientific assistant at the University of Leuven (KULeuven). He has held the position of departmental manager of Police Policy Support at the General State Police and at the General Service of Police Support for ten years. This is where he started various projects on the topic of registered crime, security monitor, enforcement of the public order, morphology of police services, etc. Since '98, he has been working as a fulltime senior lecturer at the University of Ghent, Department Penal Law and Criminology. He teaches Police Sciences, Law Sociology and methods and techniques of criminological research. Paul Ponsaers is the co – manager of the Research Unit Social Analysis of Security Research and chairman of the Centrum voor Politiestudies (Center for Police Studies). He is a member of the editorial staff of the magazines 'Tijdschrift voor Criminologie', 'Orde van de Dag', 'Panopticon', Cahiers Politiestudies and 'Veiligheidsbeleid' (Guide to Police Services). He is specialised in the field of 'Community (Oriented) Policing'.

Publications: see <http://www.sva.ugent.be>